

Philip Warford

Managing Director

Philip Warford is the Managing Director of Renaissance Legal and specialises in advising families of disabled and vulnerable individuals on how to plan for the future with Wills and Trusts. With over 35 years' experience in private client law, he is recognised as a leading expert by prestigious publications Chambers UK and Legal 500.

Known for his approachable and compassionate style, Philip takes the time to understand each family's unique circumstances and provides clear, straightforward and transparent advice. He focuses on supporting families to put the right plans in place to protect their loved ones and secure their future.

Philip regularly speaks at and hosts legal webinars on behalf of many national charities.

He holds the STEP Advanced Certificate in Advising Vulnerable Clients and a number of additional specialist memberships including The Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP), the Association of Lifetime Lawyers (ALL) and the Law Society Private Client Section.

Renaissance Legal specialises in working with families and carers of disabled and vulnerable individuals, helping them plan effectively for the future with Wills, Trusts, Powers of Attorney, Court of Protection applications, Inheritance Tax Planning and Welfare Benefits advice. The expert team has built its unrivalled reputation for their work in the disabled and vulnerable community. They are based in Brighton, but provide advice to clients all over England and Wales.
